

The Oneida Nation Arts Program is proud to present the first Unity of Nations Exhibit: Contemporary Interpretations of Native Arts at the Art Garage in Green Bay, WI from Sept. 3, 2015 to Sept. 29, 2015

The exhibit will showcase Native American Artists interpretations of traditional arts and contemporary art. Two- and Three-dimensional work will be included in the exhibit. Work can be paintings, sculpture, drawings, ceramics, fiber art, mixed media etc. or a contemporary interpretation of traditional mediums. The exhibit will feature the work of Special Guest Artists Mark Fischer and Sam Thomas along with that of Artists selected through the jury process. There is no fee to enter.

ENTRY DEADLINE: Entries must be received by July 15, 2015

Jury Results will be emailed on or before: July 30, 2015

ARTISTS' RECEPTION: Sept. 4, 2015 from 5:30pm-7:30pm

SHIPPING/DELIVERY OF ARTWORK: Art selected for the exhibit may be hand-delivered or shipped. Cost of shipping to and from the exhibit will be the responsibility of the Artist. Instructions for delivery/shipping will be sent to artists selected for the exhibit. Work will be returned the week following the exhibit closing date.

CASH AWARDS: First Place $500; Second Place $250; Third Place $100

AWARDS JUROR: The Awards Juror for this competition is Terry Stanley, Artist and Founding Director of Richeson School of Art & Gallery.

ELIGIBILITY: Artists must be an enrolled member of a tribe, and supply their tribal ID or Certificate of Indian Blood with their entry form. All work entered must be original in concept and execution. The images submitted must represent the actual work to be delivered to the gallery.

SALES: Work need not be for sale to be eligible for the exhibition. Invited artists will receive a consignment agreement. The Art Garage will retain 10% of sales and checks for sold work will be mailed within 30 days after the exhibit closes.

By entering this competition/exhibit, you agree that ONAP may use image(s) of your work to advertise/market this exhibit or future Unity of Nations exhibits.
